• A LITTLE SHARPENER TO START •

Glass/Bottle

Prosecco Asolo Extra Dry, Bele Casel, Veneto, ITALY, (11%)

More than a cut above the average Prosecco, beautifully fresh with pulpy pear and peach fruit and moreish balance
£5.00 / £28.00

Jenkyn Place Brut, Hampshire, ENGLAND (12%)

A local favourite from Bentley which rivals Champagne for quality and balance but with a distinctly English personality
£7.50 / £45.00

Champagne Pol Roger, Réserve, Brut, Champagne, FRANCE (12.5%)

Churchill's favourite; feminine and fruity, full of flavour and achieving exceptional elegance and harmony
£55.00

Champagne Billecart-Salmon, Rosé, Brut, Champagne, FRANCE (12%)

From this highly-acclaimed House, a delightful rosé with a charming, fruity nose and palate with hints of roasted nuts.
£90.00

Champagne Charles Heidsieck, Blanc des Millénaires, Champagne, FRANCE 1995 (12%)

Gorgeous in its expression of honeyed apricots, roasted nuts, brioche and flowers. This is consistently judged as one of the greats.
£170.00

£5.60 / £7.00

RED

Pietas, Carignan, Vieilles Vignes, Pays d'Herault, FRANCE, 2015 (12.5%)

Oh-so-drinkable ripe, black fruited and supple Carignan. The old vines are key to its success, ensuring juicy concentration
£5.20 / £6.70

Viña Doña Javiera Cabernet Sauvignon, Maipo Valley, CHILE 2015 (13.5%)

The essence of cassis with light herbal aromas and a graphite underbelly
£5.20 / £6.70

Berry Bros. & Rudd Reserve Red, Collovray & Terrier, VdP, FRANCE, 2015 (13%)

The aromas of hedgerow fruit and sweet spice are followed on the palate by easy-going juicy fruit and a forest floor savoury note
£5.60 / £7.00

Pulenta La Flor Malbec, Mendoza, ARGENTINA 2015 (14.5%)

The pride of Mendoza. Malbec at this altitude delivers depth and weight but with comforting softness
£6.50 / £9.00
